GRAY H. MILLER
U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE

RE: United States v. Elexis Sidney
Case No. 4:19-cr-00026-1
United States District, S.D. of Texas

Dear Judge Miller:

Bureau of Prisons policy requires that the Court be notified any time a pretrial detainee receives medication which may alter the detainee's behavior. Accordingly, this letter is intended to advise the Court of the mental health status of detainee Elexis Sidney, federal register number 61394-479.

Ms. Sidney is currently detained at the Federal Detention Center, Houston, Texas (FDC Houston). Ms. Sidney arrived at FDC Houston on December 11, 2018.

Ms. Sidney has reported issues with depression. FDC Houston's medical and mental health staff evaluated Ms. Sidney and determined that he presented with symptoms consistent with depression.

On March 13, 2019, FDC Houston physician Roberto Garza prescribed Prozac for Ms. Sidney. At present, Ms. Sidney has reported improvement in her depression. She will continue to receive treatment by FDC Houston's medical staff.

If you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

W. Smith
Warden
